

Daisy Sweet

Daisy Sweet. Mon Nov th 23 - 1885

A Visit at Covington.

Last summer I went to Covington and staid over a month, I was visiting my Cousin Mrs Thornton, I had a splendid time, I will tell you a few places my Cousin and I visited. The next morning we went over the river and got back just at dinner time. The first Sunday I was there we went to Sunday school then to church; we came back ate our dinner then went over to New-Port to see my Aunt Mrs Behymer. It was after dark when we came back. The next Sunday we went to the Highland house and to the fire works then we took five rides around on the Coaster and came home. The next Sunday we were left all alone Aunt Jane Uncle John and Charley came up to New Richmond on an excursion. I will <sup>tell you</sup> what we had for me

March April and bring forth
May flowers.
January
February
March
April
May
June
July
August
September
October
November
December
January

dinner, <sup>we had</sup> baker's bread, cake pie, cold boiled ham, and sliced tomatoes. Our milk, butter, tomatoes and water had ice in them. We were almost through eating when cousin Mollie gave me a quarter to get some ice cream. The girl that was in the store gave me more than a quart. I came back finished my dinner and ate part of the cream; and my mouth was almost frozen when I got through. I will not tell you what we did the next Sunday for I am afraid it will make you laugh.

A merry heart and a smiling face,
 Are better far than sunny weather;
 A noble life and forms of grace,
 Like leaves and flowers grow well together.